

Ken Walsh OBE

Ken Walsh is an Associate Director of The Specialist Schools and Academies Trust where he directs the National ICT Register and coordinates Futures Vision. He has recently devised the Futures Vision Awards 2005, celebrating excellence and achievement in ICT for Learning in schools across the country.

Ken, a former Technology College Head, has published practitioner research on ICT and School Leadership and on Leading and Managing the Future School. He is a member of the Trust's CPD team that delivers Strategic Leadership in ICT programmes for heads and leadership teams (SLICT and TeamSLICT). He has a lead role in developing iNet China and has visited Chinese schools on the Trust's behalf twice in the past year. Ken received an OBE for services to education in 2004.